PICKLEBALL AND TENNIS RULES

PICKLEBALL RULES

- Resident prime time is defined as 8:30am to 11:00am and 5:30pm to 8:00pm.
- During resident prime time hours: residents have priority with one guest per household. Resident must accompany guest.
- 11:00am - 5pm, Guests are welcome with a resident providing no residents are waiting for a court. Maximum 3 guests per household.
- League Play is allowed for residents only and must be pre-approved by ~~this Committee~~ the Board of Directors. Resident Leagues can play between 11:00am to 5:30pm. Maximum 4 courts.
- Games are played to 11 points and win by 2. Winners stay on the court. Two new players enter. Those 4 players may decide if they split or stay together. At the end of that game the first 2 winners must leave and the other 2 players may stay on. (Winner maximum is 2 consecutive games. They must exit the court to allow players waiting to play). If no one is waiting, play as you would like.
- When all courts are in use, the paddle rack will come into play to keep players rotating fairly. When you exit the court place your paddle in the next available slot behind existing paddles, starting from the left side of the rack. Do not place your paddle ahead of waiting paddles.
- If you need a rest and would like to skip a game, please take your paddle with you and you must return it to the end of the rack when you are ready to play. Only paddles in rack count towards next players going in. Do not put in between paddles or just walk on and say you were next waiting on the side with paddle in my hand or on benches.
- All line calls are made by the team on the ~~ball side~~ other side of the court.
- During open play courts can be reserved for private games ~~play anytime~~ if a court is not being used. A private game ~~Challenge court~~ is allowed to be used for up to 1 hour at a time or until the court is needed to accommodate waiting players. Guest rules still apply. When challenge court ends, rack system comes back in play. ~~Challenge court end as soon as all courts fill up.~~
- Proper attire must be worn at all times including shirts, shorts and sneakers.
- The first incidence of foul language and/or fighting/confrontation are prohibited at all times. The Property manager or a Board Member must be notified at the time of the incident for any penalties to be assessed. ~~threats will result in a written warning. A 2nd instance will result in a 30 day suspension of courts, pool, and clubhouse participation. Any type of threatening or combative language towards others will result in an immediate 30 day suspension.~~

- No throwing paddles or smashing them into the fences or nets! 1st offense is a warning! 2nd offense will result in a 30-day suspension!
- As bags and clothing left on the ground present a potential trip and fall hazard, NO items are permitted on the courts. All items must hang on side fences or bleachers.
- Weather – No play on wet courts or when lightning is within 10 miles. Safe play to be monitored by the Rec - Athletic Committee or Property Manager.
- Courts are NOT to be used for any purpose other than pickleball games.
